4. Customers with characteristics of vulnerability

The product is designed for residential mortgage customers , which is likely to include some customers with characteristics of vulnerability or who will experience vulnerability over time.

Together recognises that some customers we come into contact with will be vulnerable in the context of how we interact with them because of their personal circumstances. As a provider of secured lending, we have a duty and obligation to make sure that all of our work is consistent with our purpose and that we make reasonable adjustments and put in place appropriate support mechanisms to ensure our vulnerable customers receive positive outcomes and receive consistently fair treatment.

In order to achieve this, we are committed to:

- Ensuring colleagues have the right skills and capability to recognise and respond to the needs of vulnerable customers.
- Responding to customer needs through product design, flexible customer service provision and communications to deliver good customer outcomes.
- Monitoring and assessing whether we are meeting and responding to the needs of vulnerable customers and making improvements where this is not happening.

Intermediaries should continue to comply with your obligations to ensure that you treat customers in vulnerable circumstances fairly.

Please contact us if you need any further information about how we support the needs of all our customers in relation to the product.

5. Our assessment of value

We have developed a comprehensive and robust assessment process which evaluates several aspects of our business to determine the value of our mortgage product. This analysis is used to ascertain whether the product delivers fair value for customers.

The outcomes of the assessment process allows for challenge and further investigation before we sign-off the outcomes and share the summary of our assessment with you.

Our fair value assessment has considered the following:

Benefits	Price	Costs	Limitations
The product supports a customer base requiring finance within the specialist lending sector by allowing criteria not accepted by high street mortgage lenders.	Policies in place to ensure products are priced fairly, in comparison to competitors and assessed regularly. The policies ensure the approach when pricing decisions are made are consistent and compliant. When determining price we consider rate, customer risk profile, a reasonable pre-estimate of early redemption and longer term economic and financial assumptions. An overall cost comparison detailing the Annual Percentage Rate of Charge is available for customers explaining how pricing affects their payments.	Our policies are designed to ensure customers are charged fees that are a fair reflection of the market and our cost to do business. Our costs include; Cost of funds - reflects our cost to acquire funds to lend. Cost to sell – reflects cost to sell products and includes broker commission and advertising. Cost to process – reflects the cost to process and underwrite applications. Cost to service – reflects cost to maintain and support customers throughout the course of their loan.	This product is not suited to customers who fall outside the target market for this product.

Results of our assessment

Our assessment concluded that the product continues to deliver fair value for customers in the target market for the product.
